Cr Gorey said the Special Rate Variation was also setting the scene for the NSW Government’s Fit for the Future initiative.

As a Council, providing services to our communities and ensuring that our communities are represented in essential community services is something that we are keen on. However, these services are there to be used, and the council organisation has always been a tool to look at opportunities across the organisation, he said.

The council is representing the Special Rate Variation at a meeting on the 20th April, 2015.

Wakool Shire joins Small Business Friendly Council

While Council is continuing to explore all options for the Fit for the Future program, the Shire of Wakool was a strong supporter of this initiative. This would see Council work with the local schools to ensure a fit-for-purpose program is in place to create Council a positive position as we continue with this process.

Wakool Shire Council has joined Australia’s first Small Business Friendly Council (SBC) program, demonstrating its commitment to improving the ease of doing business in the area. The NSW Office of the Small Business Commissioner (OSBC) recently launched the program to develop the ground-breaking new program to increase the ease of doing business. It’s an ‘option up to the SBC’ program concept to improve the overall climate for small business in NSW through the introduction of small business service standards.

The program provides a great opportunity for Council to demonstrate its commitment to small business and improve the overall climate for doing business in the area.

Small businesses are the lifeblood of our economy and the NSW Government wants to make it easier for small businesses to do business. The Small Business Commissioner is working with Council to develop small business service standards which will improve the overall climate for businesses.

The SBC program provides a great opportunity for Council to demonstrate its commitment to small business and improve the overall climate for doing business in the area.

The Shire of Wakool is one of the first councils to participate in the SBC program, and we are proud to be part of this initiative. The program will be rolled out in the coming months and we look forward to seeing the benefits it brings to our small businesses.
